"CHEST-SHIELD"

We have introduced have become well and favorably known. Those who have tried them say that they are the best SHIRTS they have ever seen.

MERINO AND ALL-WOOL

IT PROTECTS THE LUNGS WITHOUT THE USE OF EXTRA LUNG PROTECTORS. Recommended by leading physicians as a garment of great value to all who are exposed to the rigors of our changeable climate, or have a tendency to any lung difficulty.

The "CHEST-SHIELD" is double, both front and back (remember the lungs are as much exposed on the back as in front), the dotted lines in the cut show the portions made double. The lungs are thus protected and security is afforded from pulmonary complaints, incident to sudden changes of the weather, etc.

The "Chest-Shield" in Scarlet is recommended particularly, for its Great Anti-Rheumatic Qualities. TRY IT, AND YOU WILL USE NONE OTHER. It costs no more than other makes of same quality, and while it has all the advantages of a WOOL FLANNEL SHIRT, the shrinkage is not as great, at the same time it is made longer. The seams are finished, and the PRICES below speak more powerful than any logic can :

STRONG FACTS!

> A great many people are asking what particular troubles Brown's IRON BITTERS is good for.

It will cure Heart Disease, Paralysis, Dropsy, Kidney Disease, Consumption, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and all similar diseases.

Its wonderful curative power is simply because it purifies and enriches the blood, thus beginning at the foundation, and by building up the system, drives out all disease.

A Lady Cured of Rheumatism. Baltimore, Md., May 7, 1880.

My health was much shattered by Rheumatism when I commenced taking Brown's Iron Bitters, and I scarcely had strength enough to attend to my daily household duties. I am now using the third bottle and I am regaining strength daily, and I cheeffully recommend it to all.

I cannot say too much in praise of it. Mrs. Mary E. Brashear, 173 Prestmanst. Kidney Disease Cured. Christiansburg, Va., 1881.

Suffering from kidney disease, from which I could get no relief, I tried Brown's Iron Bitters, which cured me completely. A child of mine, recovering from scarlet fever, had no appetite and did not seem to be able to eat at all. I gave him Iron Bitters with the happiest results.

J. KYLE MONTAGUE.

Heart Disease.

Vine St., Harrisburg, Pa. Dec. 2, 1881. Dec. 2, 1881.

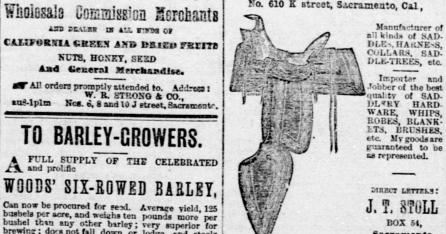

After trying different physicians and many remedies for palpitation of the heart without receiving any benefit, I was advised to try Brown's Iron Bitters. I have used two bottles and never found anything that gave me so much relief.

Mrs. Jennie Hess.

For the peculiar troubles to which ladies are subject, Brown's Iron BITTERS is invaluable. Try it.

Be sure and get the Genuine.

Frightful Tragedy in Fresno County.

CALIFORNIA.

FRESNO, November 20th .- This morning FRESNO, November 20th.—This morning the streets were rife with rumors concerning a terrible tragedy said to have been committed at the Scandinavian colony, just four miles north of Fresno. Your reporter hurried to the supposed scene of the murder and suicide, and found upon arrival at the home colony that the reported murderer was a resident at that place. Upon inquiry he found that the murderer, William P. Teague, lived in aneat-looking cottage, called Stathmore Cottage; that he had to go to town, in company with his victim, John Henry Burnett, of the Scandinavian colony; that they had returned the same evening at about 10 o'clock, had called upon a neighbor to obtain a loaf of bread, and to have his (Teague's) stock placed in charge of a Mr. Wikins during the absence of the next few days; that he and his victim then appeared in excellent spirits, and that they started the next morning about 8 o'clock for a cabin situate about two miles from the toll-house, for the purpose of pulling it down and bringing it to the colony. This was the last heard of them until Sunday about 3 o'clock. On driving to the residence of Evan Burnett, the father of the unfortunate victim of Teague's freezy, the following particulars were gleamed from Event he streets were rife with numers concerning residence of Evan Burnett, the father of the unfortunate victim of Teague's frenzy, the following particulars were gleamed from Fred. Burnett, who had just returned from the scene of the tragedy: It appears that Teague and Burnett arrived at the cabin about sundown on Saturday; that they camped for the night in the cabin; that the evening was spent without any apprehensions of danger by Burnett, and that they laid down side by side to pass the night. It appears that in the early morning Teague got up and dressed, then placing his English bull-dog revolver below and behind Burnett's ear, fired, as he supposed, with fatal effect. He then evidently laid down alongside of his victim and blew his own brains out. Burnett aweke about 3 o'clock alongside of his victim and blew his own brains out. Burnett awoke about 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon from his unconscious state, and found himself cutside the cabin covered with his own gore. He essayed to re-enter the cabin, but was too weak to do so, and so he steggered down to the cabin of a Mr. Pitts, situated about half a mile distant, where he was kindly taken care of, and whence word was discreted to his kong. and whence word was dispatched to his parents of his condition. Evan Burnett and Fred Burnett, who had arrived at the dawn on Monday at Mr. Pitts' house, repaired with some neighbors to the cabin where the awful crime had been committed. Outside the cabin they found the remains of a fire, where the party had cooked their supper, and also two coats belonging to Teague, in one of which, under the lapel, was found in one of which, under the lapel, was found a large-sized dagger. Looking into the cabin, without entering, they saw Teague stretched upon his face, with the floor covered with blood, and so dripping underneath as to present the appearance of a slaughter-house. William P. Teague, the suicide and would-be murderer, was born in Cornwall, England, was 29 years of age, and of an apparently sedate and morose disposition. consummation of his fiendish act. Indeed he told one lady that his girl in San Francisco had "gone back on him," and that it was his intention to go to San Francisco, give her his buckboard buggy, return through the mountains and kill himself. To others he has said that he would do no more cooking; that he needed no more bread; that he intended to die. Why he should wish Burnett to die with him is not definitely known. Jehn H. Burnett, the wounded man, is 23 years of age, and is also an English-man. He has a wife and child, and resides with his father at the Scandinavian colony. A physician was called to attend him, and he is at present doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances, the bullet having apparently ranged downward and lodged in the neck. He will be brought home as soon as it is possible to move him. The Coroner has repaired to the scene of the Stabbed to Beath-Chinese Riot Cases.

[SECOND DISPATCH.] MARTINEZ, November 20th .- The trial of the State vs. Emmett, for connection with the Chinese riot at this place, commenced today. A jury was readily found. The case against Miller, in the same matter, was set for Wednesday. The Coroner's jury in the case of the killing of Francisco Mertinez at Concord last evening, found that Martinez came to his death by wounds inflicted by Dario Juarez. He was bound over to appear before the Superior Court. The Trial of Clarence Gray. REDWOOD CITY, November 20th,—The Gray trial was resumed this morning at 10 o'clock. The presecution introduced some fifteen witnesses to-day, all having testified at the former trial except Mrs. Lloyd, of Santa Barbara, who was introduced to prove contain threats made by Gray against Clapsey.

Tais closed the case on the part of the prosecution. Mr. Thornton then made the opening argument to the jury for the defense, and stated to them what they intended to prove. After Mr. Thornton's statement, the Court adjourned until to movement to Court adjourned until to morrow at 10 o'clock. It is thought that the case will be given to the jury by Thursday. Arson and Rape.

SANTA ROSA, November 20th.—H. H. Haas, a merchant at Guerneville, is under arrest, charged with attempting to set on fire his own store. He was burned out a few months ago, and got the insurance.

Michael Whalon is in custody, charged with rape at Occidental.

Sequel to the Oakland Elopement Scandal. TRUCKEE, November 20th .- Upon the arrival of the delayed train from the west yesterday a wave of excitement was visible i certain quarters, and although the greatest privacy was maintained as to its cause, it finally became apparent that the sequel of the Oakland elopement scandal was about to take place in this town. Last Wednesday a young man and lady arrived in Truckee and regisman and lady arrived in Iruckee and regis-tered at the Truckee Hotel as F. Freeman and wife. The Saturday following a tele-graphic dispatch was received by police efficer Reed from Oakland to arrest on suspicion a certain man and woman, the description of them answering to that of Freeman and his companion. They were accordingly taken into custody and a message sent to the police of Oakland that the arrest had been made. Yesterday the alleged Mrs. Freeman's real husband, J. Glockler, arrived in town with the youngest child and identified the woman. Endeavors were made by him amidst tears for reconciliation, the result being that the couple returned last night to their home in Oakland. The story of the elopement is about as follows: Freeman, whose real name is Frank Francis, while living for a short time with his parents in Oakland, became infatuated Stabbed to Beath—Chinese Riot Cases.

MARTINEZ, November 20th.—At Concord last night, about 7 o'clock, Dario Juarez and Frank Martinez had a fight in a salocn. #### PROTECTIONIST QUACKERY.

Our dispatches yesterday gave some account of the recommendations made to the Tariff Commission by a body of protected manufacturers calling itself the Metropolitan Industrial League. The general tendency of the propositions is toward such superficial tariff reductions as will leave the main burdens of the system untouched. Among the more impudent recommendations is that for the removal of the tax on quinine, which was one of the most iniquitous imposts any government ever maintained. As a matter of course the "League" recommends the removal of most of the Internal Revenue taxes. That has become a sort of forlorn hope with the Protectionists. They have been utterly routed whenever they have attempted to defend the tariff by sober argument; but if they can get the Internal Revenue taxes abolished they know that all hope of tariff revision will be gone, and they can then afford to rest their case on the necessity of providing a fixed amount of revenue. This Metropolitan League. Union holiday number will appear on the 1st day of however, seems to have taken a very wide field for the employment of its energies. This is a fair specimen of the flippant rubbish which the Protectionists utter whenever they approach these

In the first place nobody has asserted that "Americans cannot build ships." In the second place it is a flat misstatement to say that there is only a tariff of five per cent, on the material which enters into the construction of ships. In the third place it is a demonstration of ignorance to assert ropean novelists. But with most Protectionists the idea of a government subsidy is the essence of wisdom, and a panacea for all evils. As to the effect of this kind of argument upon the Tariff Commission, it is of literally no consequence, since the Tariff Commission is already an Tuisk, Ireland, Sunday, was attended by 10,000 per- exploded humbug. It is therefore possible for them to do something towards the reduction of taxation and towards the revision of the tariff. We do not expect anything of the kind under the circumstances, because the Republican members of Congress have never shown any enlightenment in this regard, and because the most of them will doubtless be too sore this winter to care about doing anything to help the reputation of a party which has just repudiated them, or appeared to do so. have been seeking for a substitute for the pungent But it would none the less be a wise thing plant. The San Francisco Chronicle says : "The present attitude of the people of Califor nia towards the railroad is not on account of fancied wrongs, but because of gigantic abuses of powers," etc. What s the "present attitude of the people of 'California towards the railroad?" Does the Chronicle know? Most assuredly the popular attitude is not at all that which it represents. The late election in this State esulted in the overwhelming defeat of the faction which made hostility to the railroad the mainspring of its policy. The Republicans in their platform forced this sue. They said to the people : "We are the only genuine anti-railroad party. We can be trusted to 'cinch' the corporations; we are 'reliable enemies' of the latter." And they canvassed the State from end to end, thrusting this issue forward everywhere. If the people had been hostile to the railroad it is as clear as the sun at noonday that they would have voted for Estee and the rest of the Republican ticket. But the fact that Stoneman was elected by 22,000 majority proves conlusively that "the present attitude of people of California have no quarrel with the railroad; that they do not consider themselves oppressed and plundered by it : that they do not believe the malignant alsehoods which the Chronicle is constantly publishing concerning the railroad; that they take no stock whatever in the opinons of the Chronicle in regard to the railroad; that they look upon the "antirailroad" talk as the windy and insincere rickery of demagogues, adventurers and shonest self-seekers who are prepared to buse any interest for the sake of political apital. In short it is like the Chronicle's apudence to pretend, in the face of this crushing repudiation of its anti-railroad osition, and of its counsels generally, that the "present attitude of the people of 'California towards the railroad" is anything but friendly.

A party of 'longshoremen and boatmen had a quarrel at 1 o'clock Monday morning in a saloon corner of Battery and Valleje streets, about paying a hill for th drinks. The party stepped out on the sidewalk, and the quarrel was renewed. whereupon one of the number, said to be Michael Casey, a 'longshoreman, cut John Burns, a boatman, in the neck, inflicting a long and dangerous-looking gash on the left side. Burns was taken to the City Receiving Hospital for treatment, but Casey ran away after the cutting and escaped from the officers.

At half-past 3 o'clock Sunday morning while a man named Barry was walking along Golden Gate avenue, near Jones street, he was assaulted by a man who sprang out of a doorway, threw him down, held him by the throat with his knee upon his chest, and attempted to rifle his pockets. Barry squirmed out from under his assailant, and yelled murder so lustily that the carroter released his hold and ran down Jones street to Market, where he was arrested by officers, whose attention had been attracted by the yells. The prisoner gave the name of J. E. Sargent, and was charged with assault to rob.

FIRE LAST EVENING.—An alarm of fire soon discovered that the fire was in the vicinity of Thirteenth and X streets, beyond the water limits. The hook and ladder truck proceeded to the burning building, which was then entirely enveloped in flames. The fire extinguishers were brought into use by the truckmen, which prevented the burning of a stable that stood near the house. The building was owned and occupied by C. J. Vance, whose loss, including the furniture, will amount to about $2 000, insured in the Liverpool and London and Globe—$1,200 on building and $150 on furniture. The neighbors say that the fire was first discovered in the roof, and is supposed to have caught from a roof, and is supposed to have caught from a defective flue.

THE CASE OF THE HOWARDS.

Practical charity is a duty devolving upon every community to practice. That duty the Board of Trustees for his opinion as to the so by dissipation; much of the suffering is due to the inordinate use of strong drink; some of it is due to the brutality of the parents

The subject of systematized charity has seen one that has attracted much attention, and commanded the best thought. In but few places in the world has anything like perfection in such a system been approached.
Until it is attained here, the people must use the best medium available for reaching the worthy poor. In Sacramento it is the Howard Benevolent Association, a society com-posed of leading citizens, whose efforts in the organization are the results of sincerely benevolent impulses, and a desire to administer the people's charity fund to the very best advantage. It is entirely unnecessary to refer advantage. It is entirely unnecessary to refer to the work of the Scciety in the past; it forms a part of the history of the State, and makes up a record that is an honor to the city. Unquestionably the Society has been imposed upon occasionally, but so has every humane institution. Probably the Howards have relieved more case of distress. Howards have relieved more cases of distress, a proportion to the funds it has handled, in the past twenty years, then any similar voluntary charitable organization in the whole country. For many years it received State aid—that is now withdrawn. A cold winter is upon us, and the demands on the Society for shelter, fuel, food and clothing for the homeless, the feeble, the sick, the helpless young and the penniless are more than it can answer. It has called on the ladies of the city to aid it, and they have responded. A charity entertainment is to be iven under their auspices Friday night of his week. The great mass of the suffering poor are of the class not possible to be admitted to the hospital, and not adapted for the poor farm.

Undoubtedly numbers of the poor are made so by dissipation; much of the suffering is statute to make the assessment and determine to the inaction of the suffering is statute to make the assessment and determine the hospital statute to make the assessment and determine the hospital statute to make the assessment and determine the formula of the suffering is statute to make the assessment and determine the hospital statute to make the assessment and determine the hospital statute to make the assessment and determine the formula of the suffering is statuted to the suffering is suffered to the suffering the sufferi mine the benefits as required by the Consti-tution, no improvements could be made upon some of it is due to the brutality of the parents of innocent children; some of it is the result of crime; but in the great majority of cases the suffering poor in Sacramento are women and children, who are brought to poverty's distress through no fault of their own. The relief of these human beings is imperative. No community like this, where there is culture, refinement, warm, charitable hearts, wealth and business prosperity, can hesitate a moment about it. "To pity distress is but human; to relieve it is God-like," said Horace Mann; and Pope put it as strongly in a different form:

In Faith and Hope the world will disagree, But all mankind's concern is Charity.

The subject of systematized charity has can authorize, under the several ordinances— particularly Ordinance No. 140—the construction of sewers upon any part of the street or sidewalk; always, however, provid-ing for the proper and substantial relaying and rebuilding of the sidewalks and streets under the supervision of the Street Commissioner. Mr. Anderson also directed the attention of the Board to the necessity of some early action by the Sacramento delegation in the Legislature towards the enactment of some general laws concerning street and sewer

The prices we mention are the regular selling prices on our goods—not-withstanding they are much lewer than the prices named by those that term themselves Cheap Cash Stores. Our prices and goods are doing the work, and when any person wants to get good value in CHOICE GROCERIES, they always go direct to the oldest landmark in the Mercantile History of Sacramento: THE BIG TREE STORE. Country people visiting the city, with a view to purchasing, will do well to call on us before buying any GROCERIES. We name lover figures on wholesale lots than any House in the city.
